Love and respect are the most valuable gifts we can give our partner.

- Does your partner listen when you talk?
- Do you want a more harmonious relationship?
- Learn conversation skills to reduce stress, create more love.
- Learn to resolve conflict without anger and defensiveness.
- Learn how to create deeper intimacy in your relationship through open, intimate, safe conversation.

Our unique program is designed to teach you new relationship skills, and give you time to practice them with our support. Work privately on your relationship with the support of a small circle of couples.

This workshop is limited to eight couples so that we can provide personal attention to each couple.

"This workshop helped us reconfirm our love and respect, and to have more consideration for each other."

"We are both better listeners and speak to one another more concisely, lovingly and respectfully."

"We have made tremendous strides in developing more intimacy and improving our communication."

"This workshop saved our marriage!"

Glori Zeltzer, MA., MFT is a licensed relationship therapist in California. For over thirty-five years she has guided individuals and couples on their journeys toward joyous and passionate relationships.

Leon Berg is a founding member of the Ojai Foundation, and a facilitator and trainer of the Way of Council, a communication practice whereby we learn to listen devoutly and speak from the heart. He has been facilitating Council groups in the U.S., Europe and Israel for the past 25 years.

They bring together their communication and relationship skills, and experience as a couple, to create a dynamic workshop teaching couples how they can enliven and enrich their relationships.
